

ZAMI

Atlanta's Premiere African-American Lesbian Organization

AUDRE LORDE SCHOLARSHIP

ZAMI is a non-profit, support organization for African-American lesbians in the Atlanta Metropolitan area and beyond. Through social, developmental and educational activities and with a primary focus of bi-weekly discussions, it seeks to provide support, nurturing, and a sense of community. Founded in 1990, ZAMI is named for the biomythography of African-American feminist, lesbian, poet Audre Lorde whose life, work, and spirit are embodied in the Caribbean phrase, "ZAMI", which means women who work together as friends and lovers. ZAMI also seeks to create solidarity and serves as a clearinghouse, repository, and source of enlightenment and pride in the lives and presence of African-American lesbians and all lesbians of the African diaspora.

Eligibility

A $1000 scholarship is available to any (out) African-American lesbian attending a two-year or four-year college or university which is located in Georgia.
